To People Receiving Supports, Legal Guardians, and Family Members:

SEEC is pleased to inform you that we now provide Behavior Support Services through the Developmental Disabilities Administration’s waiver programs. Up to this date, you or your family member have been receiving Behavior Support Services from Arc Southern Maryland. People who are receiving services and currently have a Behavior Plan will now have the option to choose from whom they would like to receive Behavior Support Services.

Please take a moment to review our Frequently Asked Questions page (attached). Should you have any further concerns or would like to request more information, feel free to contact Lori Sedlezky, Director of Knowledge Management at (phone number) or lsedlezky@seeconline.org.

After reviewing the information, please complete the below form to confirm your decision to either continue with Arc Southern Maryland or transition services to SEEC. Please submit to Lori Sedlezky via:

- Email at lsedlesky@seeconline.org or
- Mail to 8905 Fairview Drive, Suite 300, Silver Spring, Maryland 20910 Attn: Lori Sedlezky
